

Contents

Editorial: PMM , the impact of research on practice, and the emerging Research Excellence Framework Andrew Gray, Jane Broadbent and Michaela Lavender	139
Debate: History of privatization David Parker	140
Debate: Ten years of devolution Jon Shortridge	142
Notes for authors	144
High-quality regulation: its popularity, its tools and its future Martin Lodge and Kai Wegrich	145
The organizational context and use of routine data for cancer service management Dawn Wilkinson, Ewan Ferlie, Rachael Addicott and Mark McCarthy	153
'Payment by Results' in the English NHS: the continuing challenges Pauline Allen	161
Effective human resources processes in local government Catherine Truss	167
Developing an alert system for local governments in financial crisis José Luis Zafra-Gómez, Antonio Manuel López-Hernández and Agustín Hernández-Bastida	175
Accountability of UK charities Alpa Dhanani	183
New development: From private office to departmental court R. A. W. Rhodes	191
New development: Performance management in a UK police force Paul Hunton, Alan Jones and Paul Baker	195

IN THIS ISSUE:

RESEARCH EXCELLENCE FRAMEWORK

DEVOLUTION

REGULATION

USING DATA

THE PRIVATE OFFICE