

Contents

Debate: Productivity versus cuts Jaki Meekings Davis	135
Debate: Personalized public services—a new state/citizen contract? Catherine Needham	136
New development: Adapting university education for changing expectations of public services leaders and managers—guidance for designing and delivering MPAs Francis Coxhead, Janet Grauberg, Paul Joyce, Colin Knox, Tanya Lawes and Andrew Massey	138
Emerging realities of local government reorganization Michael Chisholm	143
Exploring the utility of current performance measures for changing roles and practices of ambulance paramedics Geoffrey Heath and James Radcliffe	151
Measuring productivity: an approach to measuring quality weighted outputs in social care Ann Netten and Julien Forder	159
Efficiency, effectiveness and efficacy: towards a framework for high-performance in healthcare commissioning Helen Dickinson, Edward Peck, Joan Durose and Elizabeth Wade	167
Regulation of public–private partnerships: the Danish case Ole Helby Petersen	175
Balancing physician workload and patient satisfaction: a dilemma for hospital managers Javier Garcia-Lacalle	183
Learning from cost analyses: an illustration from the UK's New Deal for Disabled People (NDDP) David Greenberg and Abigail Davis	189

IN THIS EDITION:

PUBLIC SECTOR PRODUCTIVITY

PERSONALIZATION

MPAs

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT

LEARNING FROM COST ANALYSES