

Contents

Editorial: Faith in themes Andrew Gray, Jane Broadbent and Michaela Lavender	331
Debate: Institutions and UK fiscal arrangements—time for reform? Russell Mellett	331
Research Excellence Framework—some fundamental questions Stephen Mungavin and Charles Ferguson	334
Acknowledgement of PMM's 2009 referees	335
PMM's Instructions for authors	336
Theme: Religion, third sector, policy and public management
Editorial Francis Davis (Guest Editor)	337
Debate: Cohesion and shared values Muhammad Abdul Bari	340
New development: Churches and charity accounting Gareth G. Morgan	343
New development: Faith and foreign policy—a perspective from the Vatican Francis Campbell	347
New development: Faith, community organizing and migration—the case of 'regularization' Austen Ivereigh	351
Churches and charity regulation: 1993–2009 Gareth G. Morgan	355
Government support for faith-based organizations: the case of a development programme for faith leaders Rob Paton, Haider Ali and Lee Taylor	363
Accountable, authorized or authentic? What do 'faith representatives' offer urban governance? Rachael Chapman and Vivien Lowndes	371
Faith advocacy and the EU anti-poverty process: a case of Caritas Francis Davis	379
Contents of PMM, Volume 29 (2009)	387

IN THIS EDITION:

RELIGION AND PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

THE REF

CHARITY ACCOUNTING

FAITH AND FOREIGN POLICY

FAITH REPRESENTATIVES AND GOVERNANCE

FAITH IN ANTI-POVERTY STRATEGIES