

CIPFA – Setting a Course for the Next Five Years

Caroline Gardner, President

NSF Conference
28 June 2006 – York

Looking Back – 2001-05

- A published development strategy
- Significant progress on many fronts
- The merger opportunity – the overwhelming public interest argument
- The unsuccessful vote

Education and Training Portfolio Reviewed and Developed

- New PAQ – and strong student numbers
- New CPD Scheme
- CIPFA Learning Centre
- RQB Status
- International Certificate and Diploma
- Leaders in Finance

Policy and Technical Influence and Excellence

- CIPFA/SOLACE Framework
- Prudential Code
- Local Income Tax
- Financial Management Model
- Good Governance Standard

Relationship Management

- Students
- Members
- Directors of Finance
- Partners in the Public Services
- Partners in the Profession
- Government
- New Centres of Government
- International

A Stronger International Profile

- IFAC and FEE representation strengthened
- DfID Strategic Grant Agreement
- International Certificate and Diploma
- CMA (Canada) Joint Programme
- Joint Venture with IPFA (South Africa)

And Strong Finance Performance

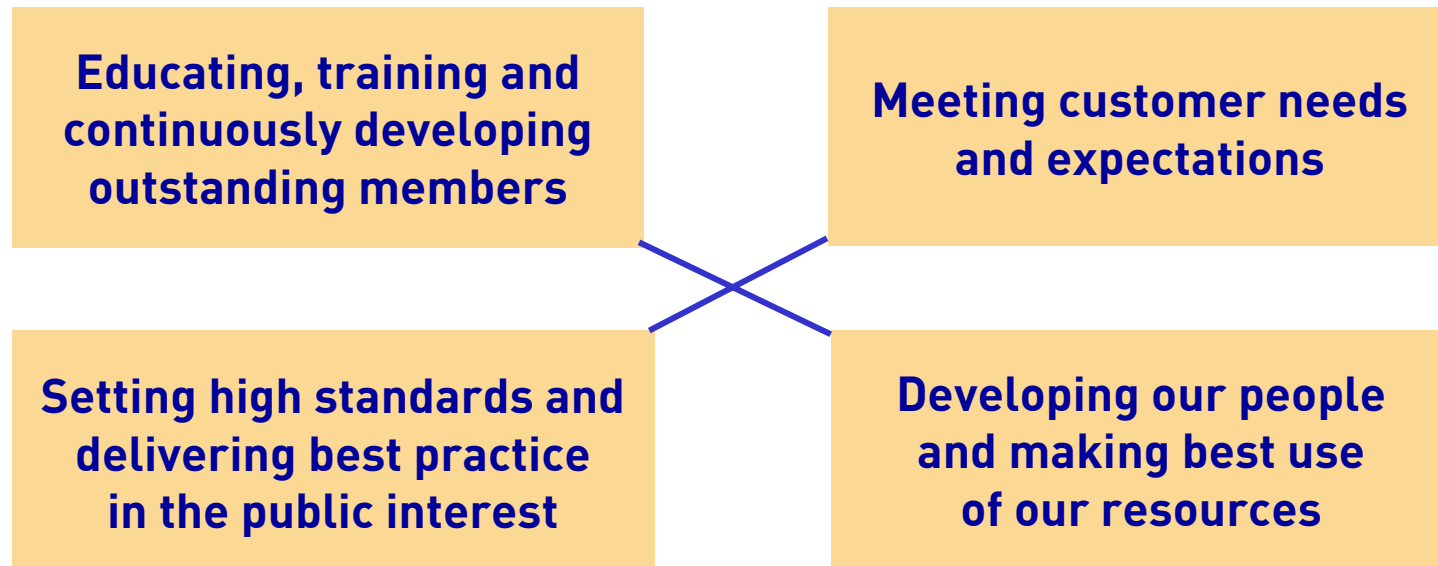

Where Now?

- A business relationship rather than a merger with ICAEW (one of a number of key partnerships) and, more importantly

- a new ambitious five year development strategy

A New Performance Scorecard

Working in the public interest to promote high standards and deliver excellence in governance and financial management throughout the public services

Key Themes

- Encouraging and supporting student and member development
- Harnessing and promoting best practice
- Growing student and membership numbers
- Forging stronger links between all accountants in the public services
- Delivering real value for our public service organisation clients
- Growing and constantly updating our products and services
- Delivering five star governance and financial management in practice
- Realising our international potential