

CIPFA Police and Fire Network

Effective Governance of Police Collaboration

By webinar

15 June 2021

Purpose

This webinar will share the findings of CIPFA's Effective Governance of Police Collaboration publication, produced in conjunction with the Police People Development Sub-group.

Learning Outcomes

By attending this webinar you will learn about:

- Identifying aspects of governance the need to be considered when entering into police collaboration arrangements, once they are up and running and when things go wrong
- Two case studies of collaborative arrangements within the sector on their experiences, benefits achieved so far and plans for the future
- Practical issues around collaboration and how they might be addressed.

Who Will Benefit

This event is exclusively for those working in police forces, OPCCs and fire and rescue services in the UK. It is specifically aimed at Chief Financial Officers of PCCs, chief constables and Fire and Rescue Authorities/Services and their teams, other members of the senior leadership teams and those involved in strategic development and collaborative arrangements.
