

CIPFA Better Governance Forum

On the Agenda - Let's Talk About Risk Management

Networking Webinars for Better Governance Forum subscribers only
27 April and 29 April 2021

Purpose

These webinars will provide the opportunity for discussion on risk management. In particular it will seek to identify how risk management arrangements have supported public bodies during the Covid-19 pandemic, and where lessons can be learned. As this is an discussion webinar, places will be limited to 30.

Learning Outcomes

The webinar will provide the opportunity for sharing of practice with peers and will help to support an evaluation of risk management arrangements.

Who Will Benefit

The webinar will be suitable for those with a responsibility for risk management or who have a risk oversight or assurance role.

Programme

09:50 – 10:00

Join the webinar

10:00 – 10:15

Introduction – Is Your Risk Management Fit for Purpose?

During the Covid-19 pandemic, what lessons have you learnt about your management of risk? Over this networking webinar we will discuss the strengths and weaknesses of how risk management works in practice and how it can develop and adapt.

This short introduction will set the scene for the roundtable discussion.

The discussions will be facilitated by Diana Melville, Governance Advisor CIPFA

10:15 – 11:30

Roundtable discussion

Did your risk management arrangements prepare you for the Covid-19 pandemic?

What are the lessons to be learned?

Looking to the future

How can risk management help build greater resilience?

Governance and Oversight

Do the governance arrangements for risk management in local authorities need to change?

11:30 – 11:45

Summary

CIPFA Sustainability Policy

CIPFA is delivering all of our training courses, workshops and seminars in accordance with our sustainability strategy. We do not provide hardcopy course materials to delegates and these are now distributed by email in advance of the event. We are striving to reduce our carbon footprint in every way that we can, and we hope that we can count on your support.