Tackling public sector fraud from the inside out

Marc McAuley
Senior Counter Fraud Consultant

The Chartered Institute of Public Finance & Accountancy
Introductions

Marc McAuley
Senior Counter Fraud consultant, CIPFA
- 25 years public sector counter fraud experience
- CSAG – Cabinet Office
- Fighting Fraud and Corruption Locally (FFCL) Board Member

Mike Frost
Audit and Anti-fraud Manager, Buckinghamshire Council
- 30 years public/private sector counter fraud experience
- CIPFA Affiliate Member

Nick Jennings
Head of Herts & Beds Shared Anti-Fraud Service
- Experienced public sector counter fraud leader
- CIPFA Affiliate Member

Heidi Loren De Sousa
Counter Fraud Apprenticeship Manager, CIPFA
- 15 years experience in the field of investigative practice
- An ambassador of learning
- Developed CIPFA's Counter Fraud Apprenticeship Programme
An Expert View

- What does the future of fraud look like? A Dystopian View (MM)
- What is the biggest current/future challenge for local government counter fraud teams? (MF)
- What are the pros and cons of shared service working arrangements? (NJ)
- Up-skilling the workforce with limited resources (HD)

Areas of Discussion

- How can local government prepare itself for change?
- What role does central government play in enabling/assisting local government?
- What role does CIPFA have for local government counter fraud?
Thank you

Contact Marc McAuley
Marc.Mcauley@cipfa.org
020 7543 5679
07877 818 502

www.cipfa.org/cfia
www.cipfa.org/counterfraud