CIPFA membership benefits at a glance
Your career partner

Working in the public sector has always been both challenging and rewarding. But given the myriad of issues the sector is now facing, public finance professionals need a different approach and mindset if they are to deliver real outcomes for the people and communities they serve.

As a membership body, our students and members are at the heart of everything we do. We work hard to support you throughout your career and are committed to helping you add value to your teams and organisations, regardless of which area of public finance you work in.

Your membership benefits

To help you meet the challenges ahead, we have drawn together an extensive range of resources and services. Each one has been selected for the practical and tangible support they provide to you as a public finance professional.

These benefits include access to insight, commentary and expertise, specialist support services, continuing professional development (CPD) training, peer-to-peer networking and exclusive member resources, while the CIPFA designation reflects your professional track record and expertise in public financial management.
