

The details of Mr Taylor's response indicated that the Charities Commission guidance 'Conflicts of interest: a guide for charity trustees' (CC29) should be reflected in the SORP specifically the requirement to record conflicts of interest and the disclosure of trustee benefits.

The full text of the response has been excluded as it contains details of an individual case and as such it may be prejudicial to publish