Essentials – introductory workshops

CIPFA Networks has developed a range of introductory workshops on a range of topics for staff and elected members who are new to local government or in need of a refresher, so feel free to mention to your colleagues who you think this might benefit.

Numerous product offerings include; Accountancy and finance workshops, Professional services workshops, Governance workshops, Asset management workshops and taxation workshops.

The workshops are designed to give attendees a confident grasp of the key principles, legal frameworks, regulatory requirements, statutory responsibilities and upcoming changes.

Each workshop carries CPD points and in addition to the numerous introductory events being held around the UK, each workshop can also
